About Us

At Safa Oranges, we are passionate about growing and delivering the highest quality oranges and citrus fruits to customers worldwide. With a deep-rooted commitment to excellence, our farms in Egypt are dedicated to cultivating the finest produce using modern farming practices and sustainable agriculture.

We believe in the power of nature, and that's why we strive to incorporate organic farming methods wherever possible. Our team is focused on promoting sustainable development by working in harmony with the environment, ensuring that each harvest not only meets but exceeds global standards for quality and freshness.

With a vision to bring nature's best to your table, Safa Oranges is proud to uphold the values of fair trade, supporting the farmers and communities who are the heart of our success. Our produce is a reflection of our dedication to quality, sustainability, and the trust we have built with our partners across the globe.

From farm to table, we ensure that every orange is packed with flavor, freshness, and the promise of excellence that defines Safa Oranges.

Taste the Difference:

At Safa Oranges, we are proud to lead a cooperative of farms that enables us to harness collective resources, producing large quantities of premium-quality oranges without compromising on excellence. Through strategic partnerships with trusted suppliers, we ensure that only the finest oranges reach our customers.

Our success stems from Egypt's ideal climate and fertile soil, which allow our citrus trees to consistently produce vibrant, unblemished fruit. The combination of high quality and competitive pricing has made Egyptian oranges a global favorite, and Safa Oranges is at the forefront of meeting this demand.

Innovating Tradition: With over 30 years of farming expertise, our team blends time-honored knowledge with cutting-edge agricultural techniques. From advanced irrigation to precision pruning, we constantly refine our methods to ensure our oranges are bursting with flavor.

At Safa Oranges, we don't just grow fruit—we cultivate a tradition of excellence, enhanced by world-class customer service, to meet the growing demand for the best in citrus.

Mandarin

They have loose skin, often referred to as "zipper-skinned," making them easy to peel and delicious to eat.

Grapefruit

Grapefruit is a subtropical citrus hybrid with a large, tangy-sweet fruit, ideal for fresh juice.

Lemon

Lemons and limes are tangy citrus fruits, rich in vitamin C, used for cooking, flavorings and beverages.

Our Global Market:

Expanding Global Exports & Distribution

In the 2023/24 season, fresh orange exports are projected to reach 2.0 million metric tons (MMT), a significant rise from 1.6 MMT in 2022/23.

This growth reflects the exceptional quality and increasing global demand for Egyptian oranges, including our own premium produce.

Key factors contributing to this increase include:

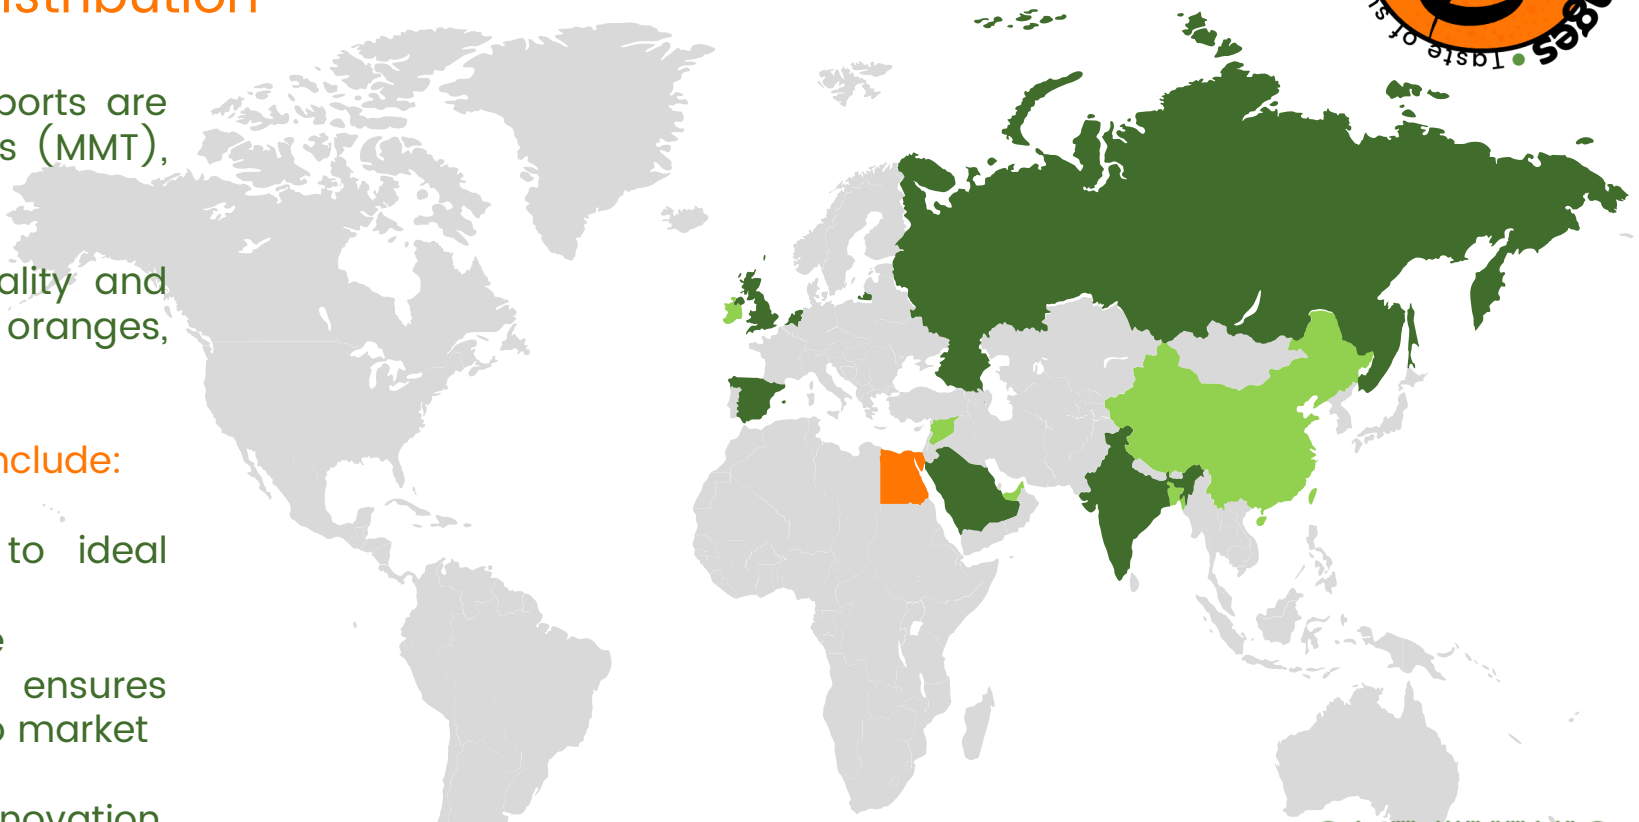

- Higher yields per hectare thanks to ideal environmental conditions
- Expansion into new markets worldwide
- A robust traceability system that ensures transparency and quality from farm to market

With our commitment to quality and innovation, Safa Oranges continues to play a key role in positioning Egypt as a global leader in orange exports.

we take pride in supplying the finest produce to some of the world's largest markets

Our expanding markets encompass key regions, including the Netherlands, Russia, Saudi Arabia, India, United Arab Emirates, Spain, Bangladesh, Syria, China, and the United Kingdom.
